

National Tsing Hua University Directions for Mediation Between Graduate Students and Paper Advisors

Approved at the 3rd University Affairs Meeting for Academic Year 2017 on September 12, 2017

Approved by the President on September 30, 2017

1. The Directions are established in order to settle conflicts and disputes between graduate students and paper advisors of National Tsing Hua University (hereinafter referred to as “NTHU”).
2. Graduate students of NTHU shall complete the selection of paper advisors (“advisors”) within the time limit prescribed by the relevant department, institute or degree program, and complete the degree within the study years.
3. Where it is impossible to settle an academic dispute between a graduate student and advisor, the graduate student may complete the Application Form for Mediation (see attachment) and submit the same to the relevant college for mediation by the dean.
4. Where the graduate student raises any objection against the resolution rendered by the college, they may file an appeal with the Student Appeal Review Committee pursuant to NTHU's regulations governing student appeals.
5. The Directions shall be enforced upon approval of the University Affairs Meeting and approval of the President.
